some forever, not for better,
some have gone and some remain*

*All these places had their moments with lovers and friends I still can recall.
Some are dead and some are living.
In my life I loved them all.*

SANTA FE CHIEFS

Santa Fe home of the Chiefs
We have yet to see defeat
We may have lost some of the games
But our pride will bring us fame
Our pride is great and will stay
It will last for all the days
No school is prouder or has more spirit
When we shout everyone hears it
There's nothing like Santa Fe High
With our pride we'll make it by We're better than others because we're the best
And we'll stay and beat the rest
Time will come and time will go
But everyone around us knows We're the school of schools and number one
We shine bright, brighter than the sun
We don't give up and can't be stopped
The Santa Fe Chiefs can't be topped
We try for success and we succeed
We are the great Santa Fe Chiefs

CHIEFTAIN PRIDE

Standing proud and tall, eighty-two has got it all.
 Chieftain pride will never fade cause the mighty Chiefs have got it made in the shade
 And though the end is drawing near,
 we don't have a thing to fear.
 And now the best has just begun because eighty-two is number one!

THE OLD MAN AND THE ROSES

The elderly man stumbled into the flower shop looking as though he were falling endlessly into a cold, eerie grave. As he hobbled past the numerous little blossoms that seemed to destroy the sounds of death, which is a silence that we have never experienced, he suddenly stopped and turned to see a box of beautiful red roses. His eyes gleamed as if he were struck by a glorious, immaculate stream of lightning. The old man stared endlessly at the brilliant red roses.

Then, suddenly, as though he were wakened from a pleasant vision, he lifted his wrinkled and deformed hands to gently admire and enjoy the feeling of a precious velvet blanket beneath his tired fingertips.

The man was suddenly alerted by a gentle hand upon his shoulder and a voice saying, "May I help you?"

The old man replied, "I have no money sir, but my wife would enjoy these roses very much." The man continued saying, "My wife always did love roses, and the magic that roses seemed to bear; she loved the mystical aroma and the feel of the baby-soft petals against her cheeks when she cuddled them tight with the kind of love that only roses could provide".

Then, seeing tears in the old man's eyes, the clerk understood that the man's wife had passed away; therefore he replied, "Take them sir, they're your's". The old man cried at first; then the clerk noticed the eyes of the elder glowing with joy and happiness. The old man suddenly didn't limp anymore, but he leaped instead, releasing the joy and thankfulness from within his tired, old body.

The old man suddenly stopped rejoicing, and turned to the clerk noticing that the clerk's eyes were also glowing. The old man said, in a trembling voice, "Thank you very, very, much—from Martha and me".

Immediately afterward the man turned and walked out the door with the box of roses clinched in his fingers tight. The clerk watched in amazement as he saw the revitalized man sort of dance toward the church cemetery. Just then the clerk's eyes seemed to overflow with radiant streams of—tears of both sympathy and happiness. As he cried, the clerk silently declared that any man with that much love in his heart shall live forever in the hearts of those who loved and respected him.

To Marla

A very special friend, that I've known a long time. You really a nice, happy sweet girl. Hope we can be the very best friends forever.
I wish you the best of luck in all you do, and I wish your good luck with the group.

Band was a blast, but now we've found other things. But our friend ship will still be the best. I wish you the best of luck with the 1982-83
Santa Fe Majorettes. But until I'm lets done with school. But until I'm lets have three more great years. I'll always be here for you, how ya?

OUTSTANDING . . .

The 1981-1982 Varsity Wrestling Team started the season with great hopes and expectations, and a new coach. The team was led by Senior Captains Brent Ranney and George Negrette the Chiefs rolled to 20 win-2 loss and a 10th straight Whitmont League Title. The team also had some outstanding senior performances by, Jeff Mahlstede, Raymond Acedo, Adam Rodriguez, Steve Atteburry, Gilbert Cardenas, Eddie Evans, Carlos Arenas and Tom DeVaere. The team also had good performances by underclassmen, Paul Brewer, Ron Anderson, Atticus Rodriguez, Ceaser Gallegos and Rick Ortiz. The Junior-Varsity Team also compiled a 4 win-0 loss record, and a Whitmont League Title. So things look real good for next year's team.
